Miss Davis

In dedicating the '62 SHIELD to Miss Martha Shelton Davis, we do so with appreciation for her nine years of untiring efforts in promoting White Station. It also seems fitting that because she was the co-advisor of the first annual at White Station we should dedicate this, the sixth volume of the SHIELD, to Miss Davis.

An exemplary teacher, she has devoted much of her time "above and beyond the call of duty." Miss Davis is likely to be found at every football game, every basketball game, every school function, for her enthusiasm and spirit in supporting White Station never fails. Miss Davis has helped to bring the Latin department citywide recognition through White Station's participation in the annual Latin Tournament, held at Memphis State University. She also sponsors the Latin Club and organizes the annual Roman Banquet.

Well-liked among the faculty and students, Miss Davis is more than a teacher; she is a friend to all and a perfect example of "The Spirit of White Station."

Equipped with thermos, lunch sack, and notebook, Miss Davis is ready to begin the day.

The Roman Banquet, organized by Miss Davis, proves to be successful every year.

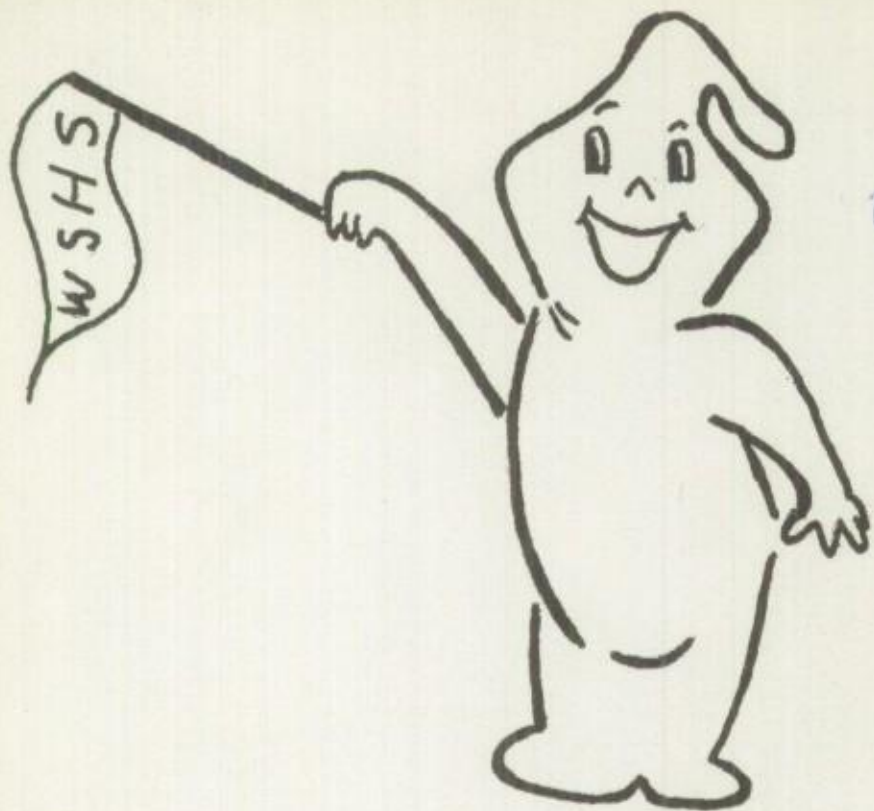

... In Dedication

Miss Davis enrolls her students in the Latin tournament at Memphis State University every year.

Screening cheerleading tryouts each year is an enjoyable task for Miss Davis.

Richard!
you're a great guy with a great sense of humor!
the best of luck always see ya! Sharon Blackwell

The Spirit

The Spirit of White Station was born when the doors of the school were opened for the very first time. He was just a little fellow then, but you ought to see him now! He has grown, and GROWN, and GROWN. He has had every reason to grow to such large proportions. Just look at all the places in which he has been able to grow. He has grown every day in the classrooms, at every pep meeting, at every athletic contest, and at every club meeting. He knows that the faculty at White Station is the best in Memphis, he knows that the students at White Station are always ready to cheer their teams on to victory, and he knows that everyone enjoys the varied school clubs.

As you turn the pages of this, your '62 SHIELD, watch for the Spirit of White Station. Just as you feel his presence during the school year, you will see him throughout the annual. He is everywhere around you, and without him White Station would not be among the top schools in Memphis. In the years to come as you reminisce and look through your annual, we hope you will have many pleasant memories of your high school days and "the Spirit of White Station."

A Spartan runner makes good use of an opening cleared by the line.

The White Station Football Team, although failing to chart a victory, kept their fighting spirit through the entire season. Head football coach Kenneth Floyd attributed most of our losses to the smallness and inexperience of the squad. With only a few lettermen returning, many new names appeared on the Spartan's starting line-up.

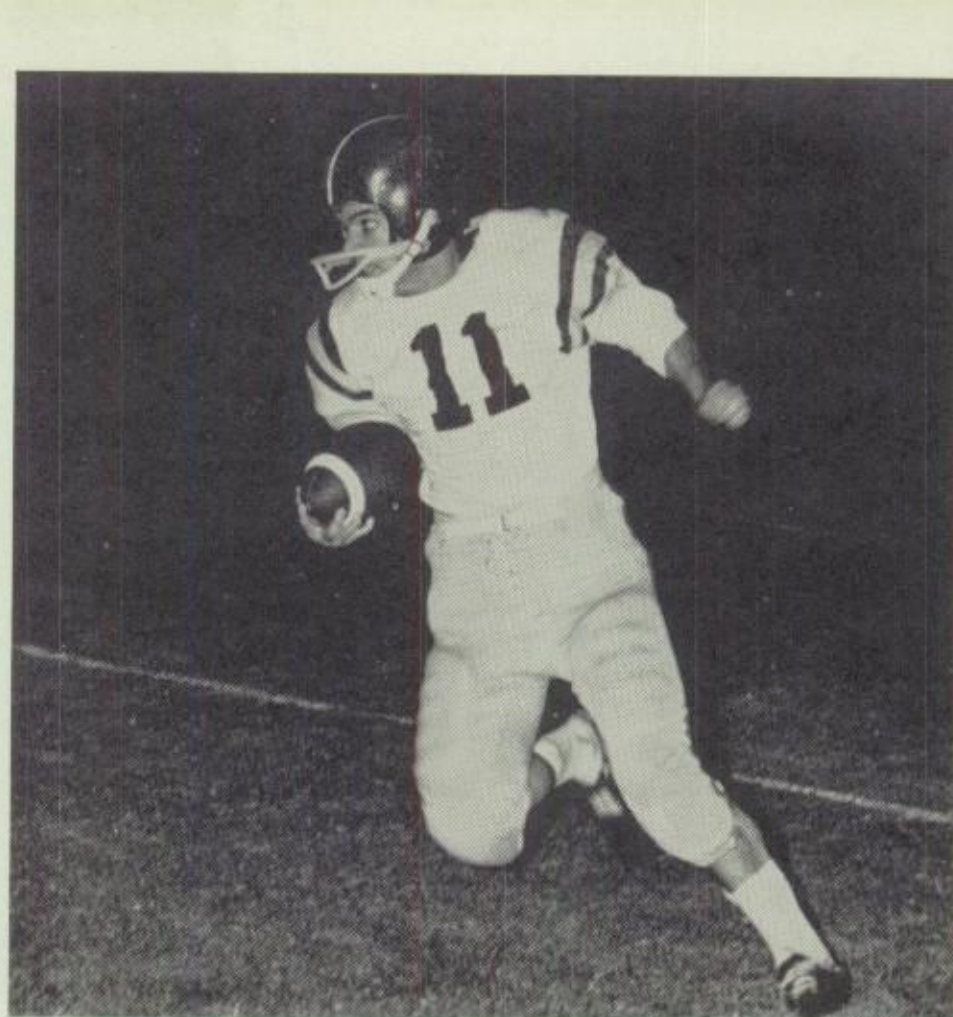

The football team was helped greatly throughout the season by the enthusiastic support of the student body and the able coaching of Kenneth Floyd, Tommy Spires, and Ken Mathis. The Spartans placed three players on the All Memphis Squad. Bill Dowdle made the Second String of the All Memphis Team, and Buddy Pugh along with Dennis Malueg were placed on the Honorable Mention List.

At the football banquet awards were presented to outstanding players. Hugh Richbourg received the award for the BEST ATTITUDE, Buddy Pugh was named the BEST BACKFIELD PLAYER, and the BEST LINEMAN was Bill Dowdle.

The large number of lettermen returning to the team for the 1962 season give us high hopes and a bright future.

The cheerleaders started off this year with a combination of fun and hard work. Under the guidance of Mrs. Marcia Webb, the cheerleaders practiced many hours during the summer months and after school to perfect their cheers. Later they attended a clinic at the Martin Branch of the University of Tennessee, where cheerleaders from several states were assembled to learn new ideas. However, cheering is not all work and no play. Before every football game the cheerleaders gathered for dinner together. This year at pep meetings the cheerleaders turned into hillbillies, cavewomen, and even midgets. The cheerleaders of White Station have done much to further the spirit of White Station.

144 Starting the game, Cap Herrington jumps for the tip.

The Spartans began the 1961-1962 basketball season by taking road trips to Camden, Beechbluff, and Brownsville.

Although the Spartans won eight of their first nine games they were not able to hold the average as the Prep League competition became keener. White Station completed the season with a record of 11 wins and 18 losses. Spectators saw one of the most unusual games of the season when White Station met Treadwell on our home court. Coach Lowery sent the Spartans into a stall designed to force the Eagles out of their zone defense. Treadwell continued on their zone while White Station controlled the ball in their persistent stall. With the score 2-3 at the half the teams left the floor. The second half saw normal action restored due to changes in the tactics of both teams.

Cap Herrington drives through a Tech defender.

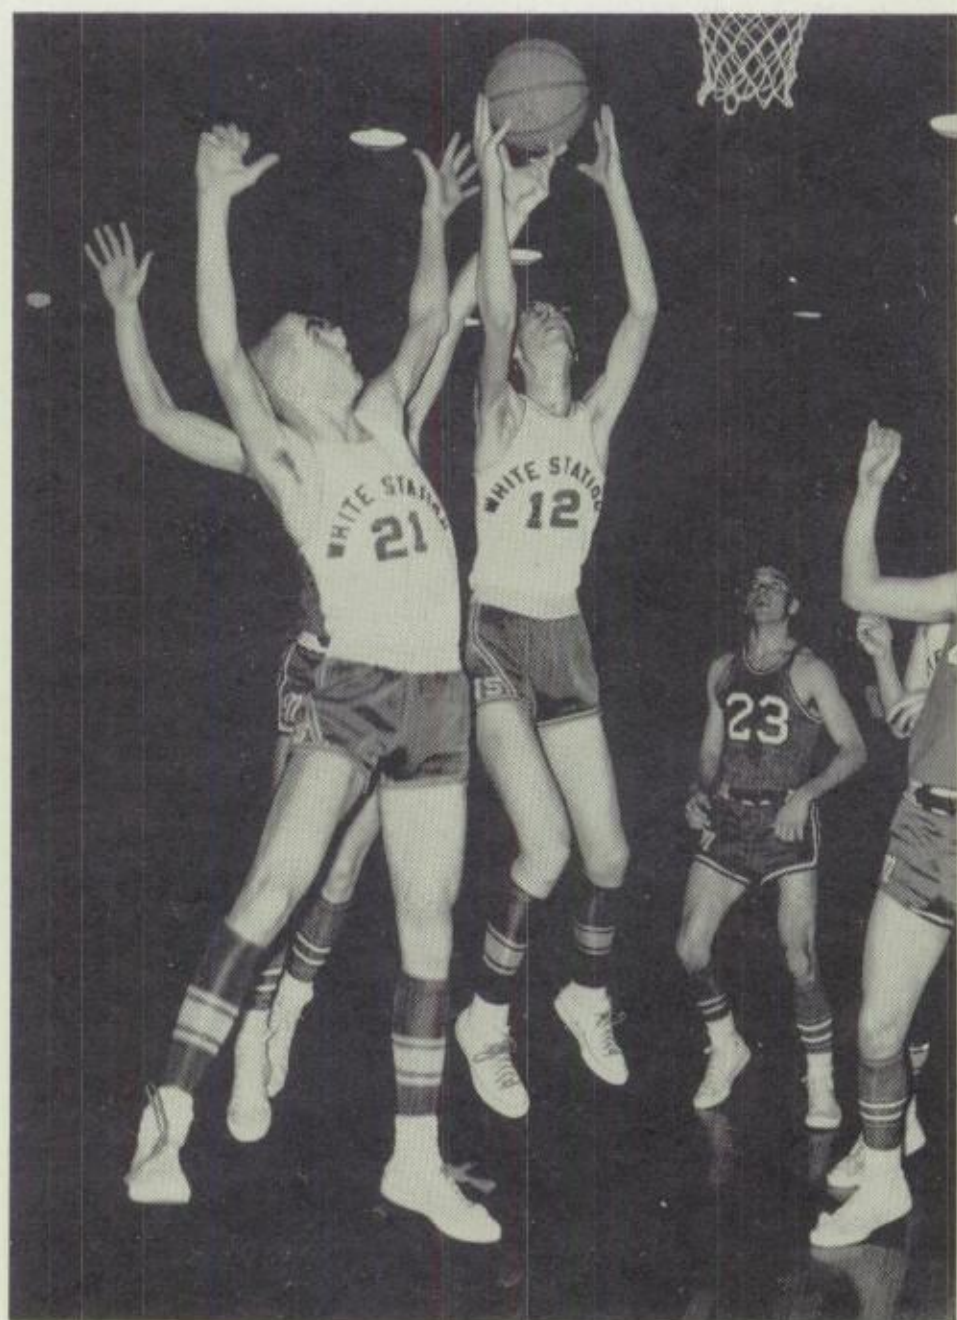

Jack Tilton reaches for a loose ball.

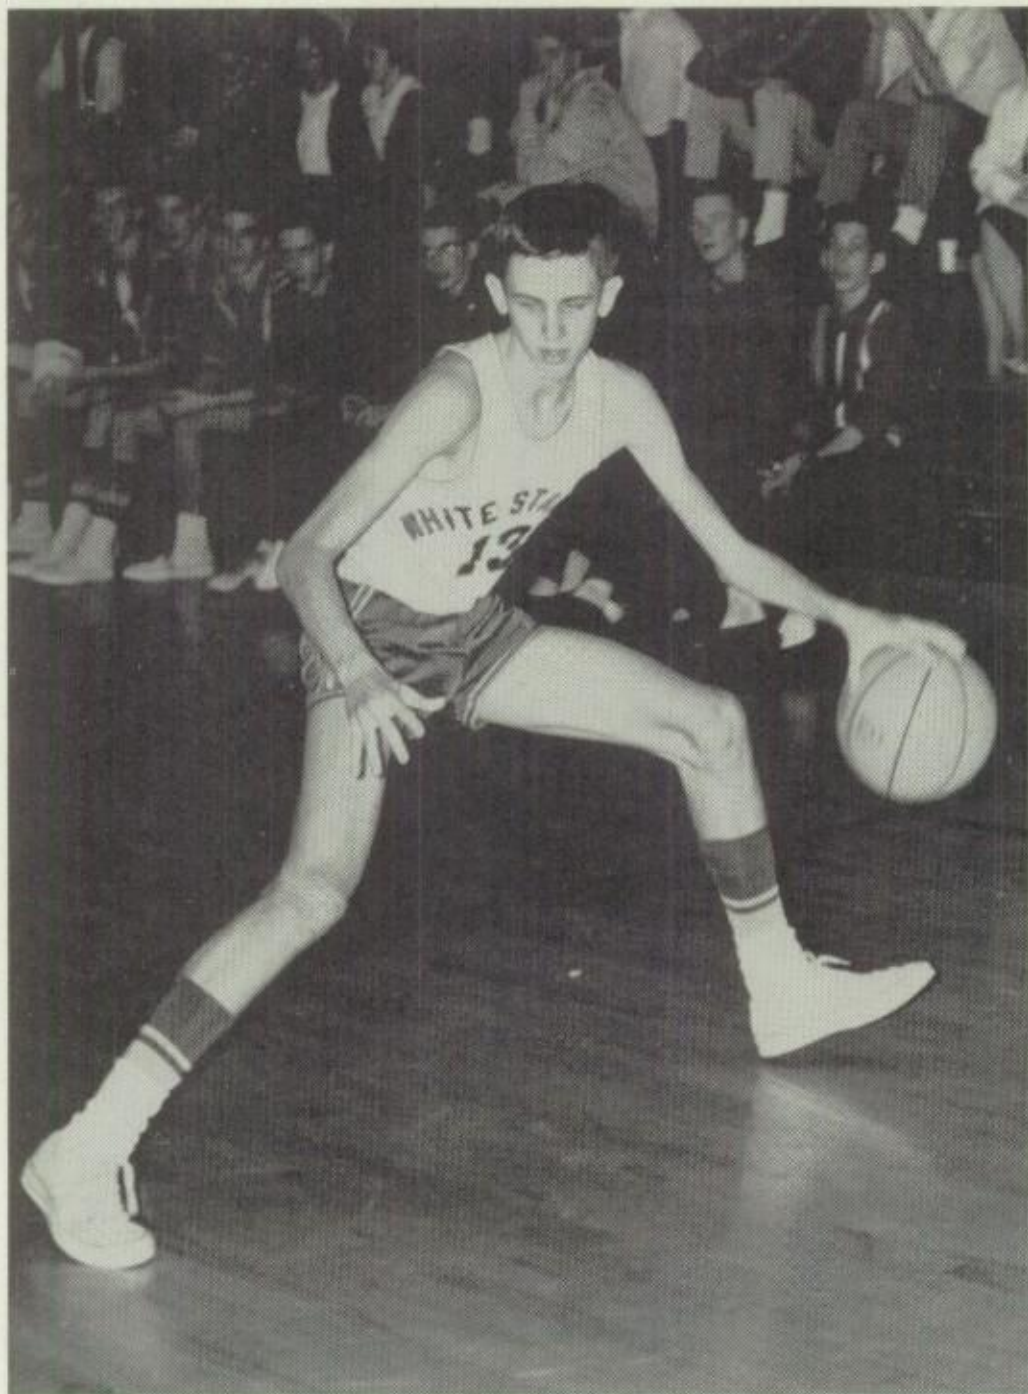

The high point in the season came in a thrilling three game series starting with the defeat of Tech 57-62. In the two successive games the Spartans lost to the Overton Rebels 55-54 and to Messick 59-57. The White Station-Overton game was give and take all the way, with White Station on top 29-27 at the half. Since the score stood 50-50 when the final buzzer sounded, the game went into overtime. The Spartans led 54-53 until the last 12 seconds when a Rebel jump shot gave Overton a 55-54 victory.

Messick was faced with a spirited attack by the Spartans that gave them 25 points in the first quarter and an 8 point lead at the half. The Panthers revived for the second half and managed to pass the Spartans and win in spite of Jack Tiltons 24 points.

Highest scoring averages were attained by Welch Agnew and Jack Tilton. Agnew made 77% of his foul shots while Tilton followed with 66%.

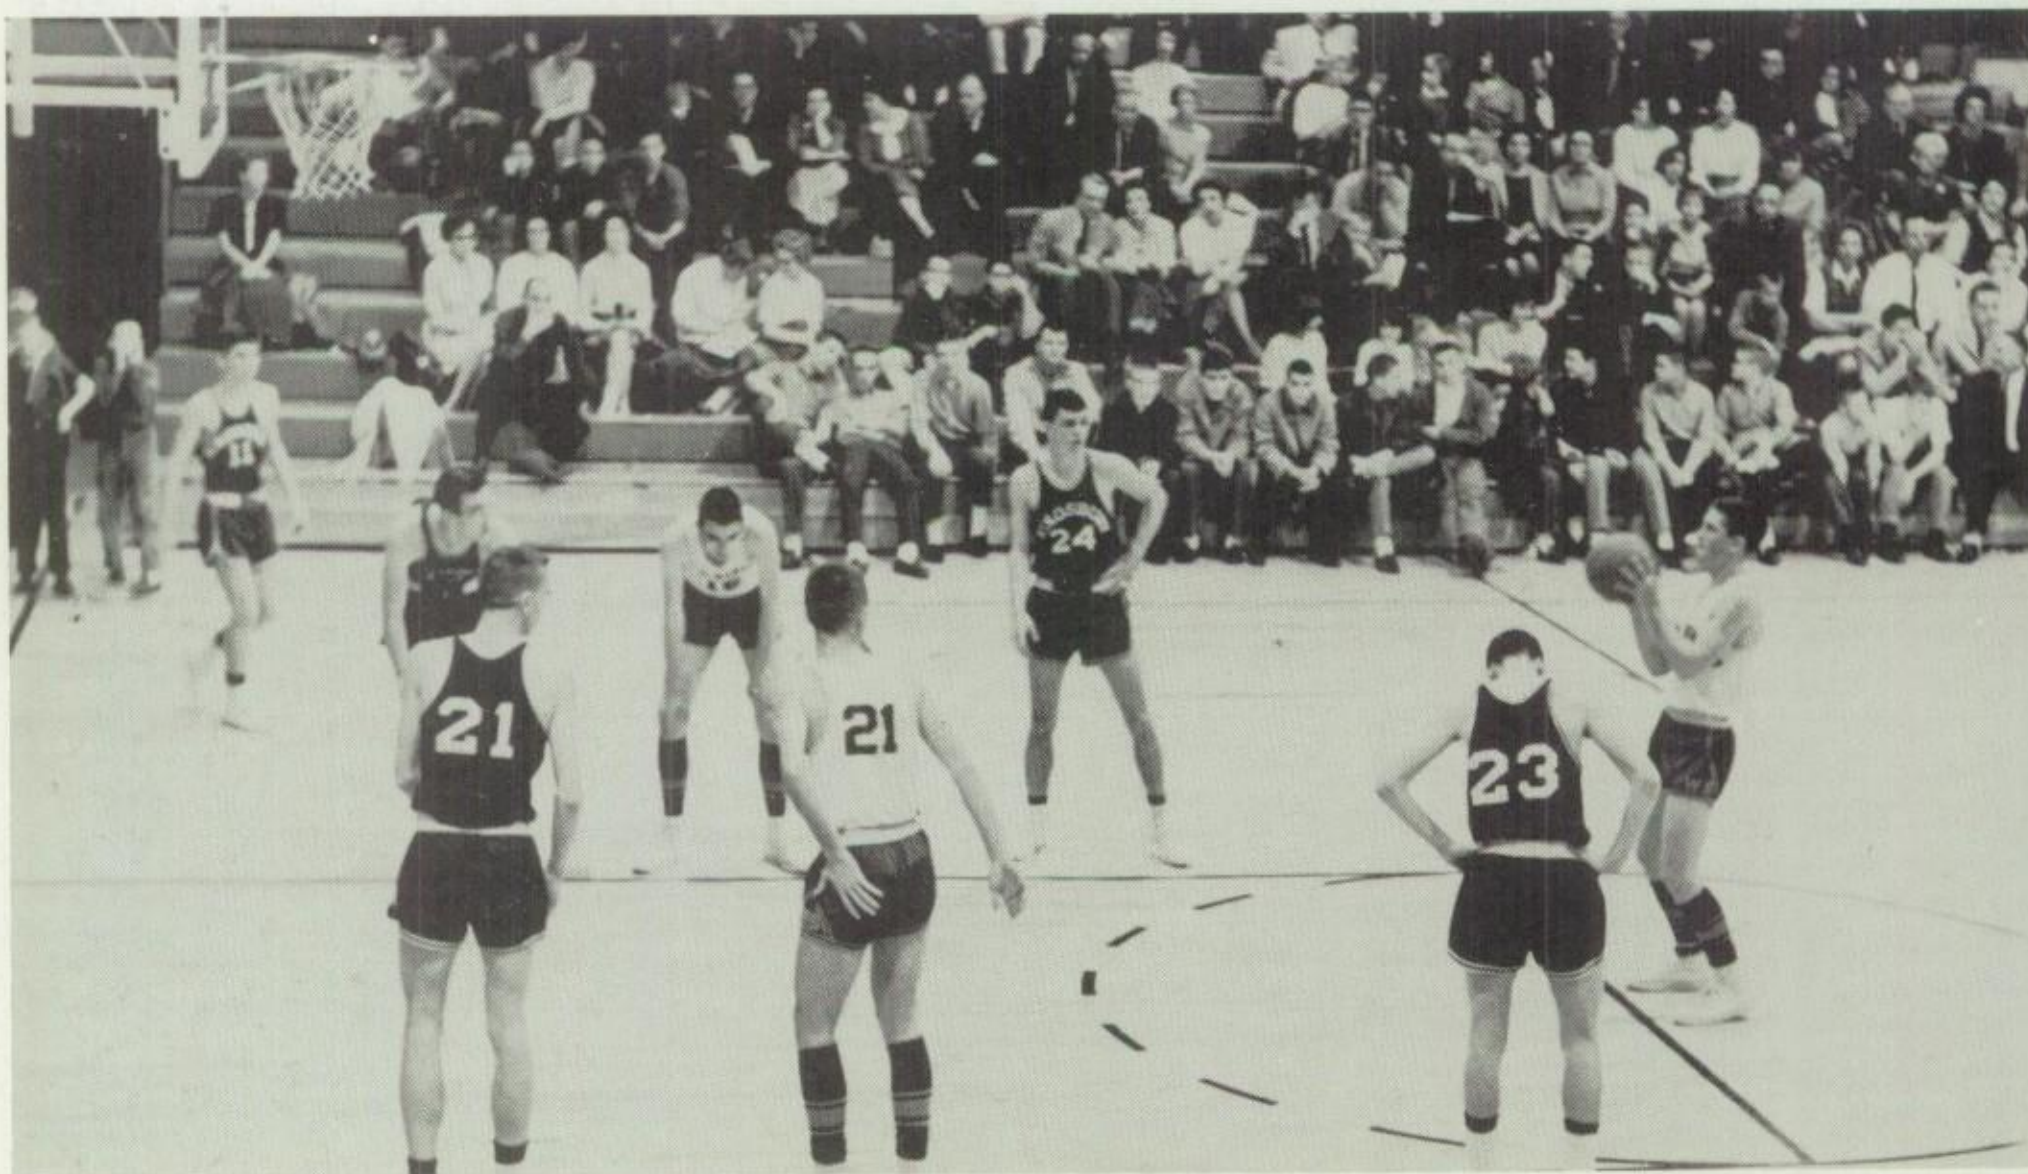

Huff and Roberts scramble for the rebound.

Rob Vanatta dribbles down the court for a White Station score.

"B" TEAM

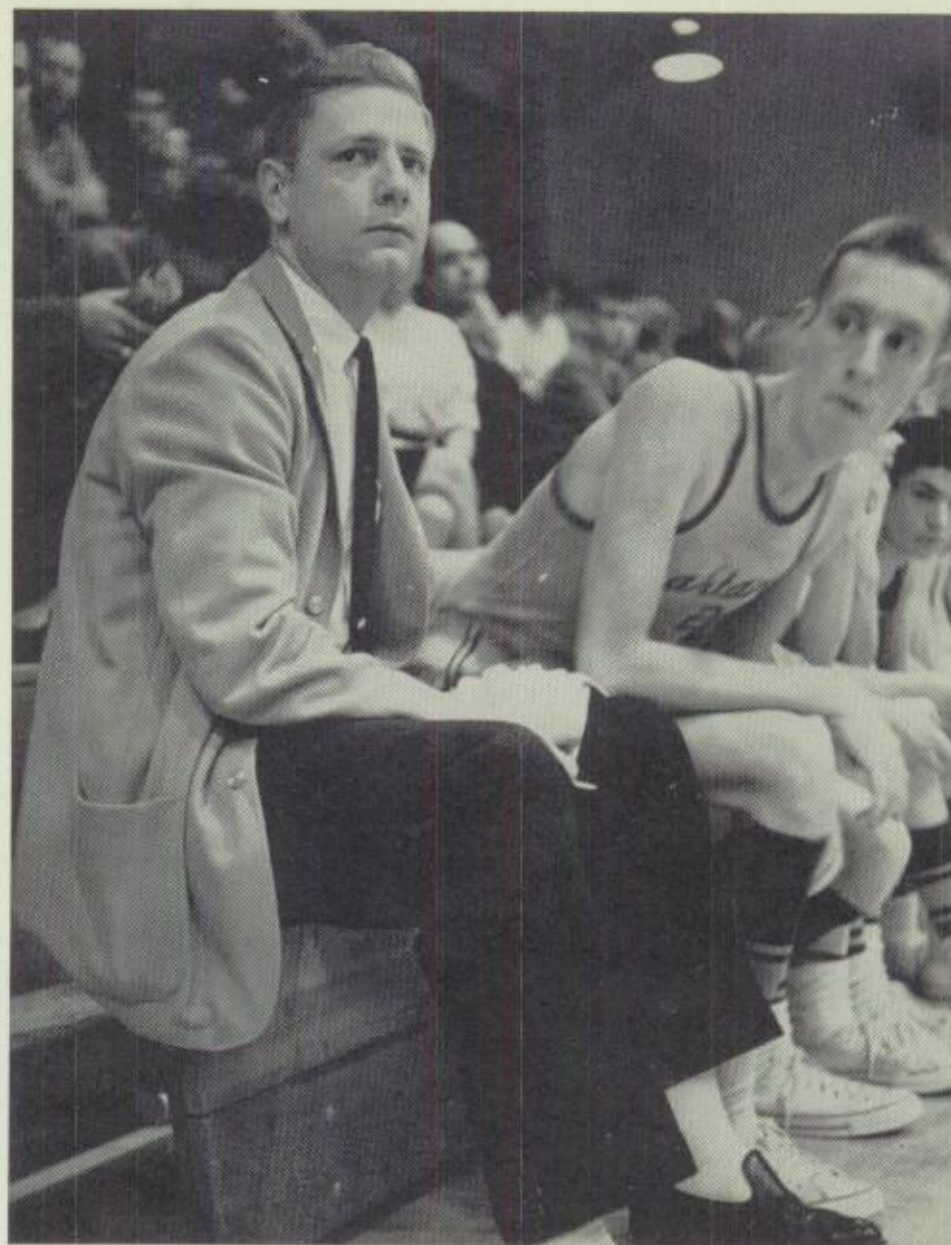

The Senior "B" Team ended the 1961-1962 season with a record of ten wins and twelve losses. Feagin and Hale were consistent winners of their specialties. Feagin running the mile and 880 and Hale the 100 and 220. Hale went on to win the 220 in the state meet.

The National Honor Society is limited to a carefully selected group of students chosen on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. A maximum of five per cent of the junior class is tapped in the spring, and an additional ten per cent is chosen in the fall. The twenty-five members of the senior class in this year's Honor Society have co-operated in the sale of Spartan Sweatshirts. The profits from this endeavor will provide the impetus for the two annual Honor Society—Key Club Scholarships.

The annual means many things to the editors and staff, but most of all it is their gift to the Spartans as a record of what has been said and done at White Station during the year. This SHIELD will be handed down, just as the ones before it, and we hope that every Spartan will remember and enjoy it for years to come.

Senior and Faculty Editor: ELLYN MINTZ. Assistants: Carolyn Ruffin, Judy Rathbun.

Business Manager: CHERYL ROTMAN. Assistants: Patsy West, Elizabeth Jennings.

Activities Editor: GAIL PERLBERG. Assistants: Jennifer Drake, Mary Frances Jetton.

Feature Editor: JEANIE FEINSTEIN. Assistants: Susan Smith, Janet Putnam.

Editorial Board goes over plans for the Shield, while Bill Halliburton tries to sneak a preview.

SHIELD

The Annual staff would be lost without the untiring aid of Miss Charleen Bennett, our advisor.

Photographers: Ronnie Swain, Tommy Feazel, Max Hughes.

Circulation Manager: GAIL OSTBY. Assistants: Becky Thurston, Dottie Hattendorf.

Sports Editors: BILL HALLIBURTON, RONNIE SWAIN.

Class Editor: LINDA MARTIN.
